

An outpouring of help from the community has raised $370,000 of the $500,000 needed for the stem cell transplant needed to save Stephanie Smith's (right) life. Co-chairing the fund-raising efforts for the 8-year-old Belleville girl is Ralph Nodwell (left.) The goal must be reached by mid-November for a successful operation.

Salvation Army seeks helping hands

Last year, the Salvation Army raised $86,000 in November and December which was used to help 2,775 local residents enjoy their Christmas celebrations.

The families received gift certificates, new toys for the children and holiday food baskets. The rest of the money was used to assist 1,929 individuals with emergency food packets. People also were assisted with utility and rent bills, preventing them from becoming homeless.

The goal for 1996 is $100,000, and some 3,000 people are expected to be helped.

Here are ways that the community can help:

- Invite speakers from the Salvation Army Speaker's Bureau so that they can explain how individuals can be a "partner" with the Salvation Army.
- Adopt-A-Family, and be matched with a family for whom you can purchase gifts and food for the holiday season.
- Volunteer by ringing a bell at a Red Kettle during November and December in the evenings or weekends.

As a "partner" with the Salvation Army, individuals can:

- Businesses can start an employee matching gift program, sponsor a food or toy drive, adopt-a-kettle or adopt families for Christmas
- Schools can donate the proceeds from a talent show or school carnival

Contest continues

By dropping an entry form into a box like one of those shown above, individuals have an opportunity to win the MCN-sponsored $10,000 Auto Giveaway. Boxes have been placed at the following participating auto dealerships: Tennyson Chevrolet, Livonia; Crestwood Dodge, Garden City; Jack Demmer Ford, Wayne; Dick Scott Dodge, Plymouth; Milliken Ford, Redford; Krug Chevrolet, Taylor, and Suburban Pontiac in Ypsilanti. Ten semifinalists will be chosen and the name of one drawn as the grand prize winner, who can use the prize toward the purchase or lease of a car. MCN Special Photo

Canton to host archery tournament

In addition to having been the host community for the Senior Softball Tournament last fall, Canton will become host to an event next summer which will draw Olympic medalists to the area.

The National Archery Association of the United States (NAA) will bring the 113th annual National Target Championships to Canton during the summer of 1997. The event, sponsored by the Detroit Convention and Visitors Bureau, will be held in Heritage Park during Aug. 3-8 in 1997.

The community has recently seen a flurry of major sporting events. Last fall, Canton hosted (for the second time) the national Seniors Softball World Series, while over the summer Canton fields saw action with the Girls Junior Softball World Tournament. Earlier this year, Canton hosted the Michigan Women's Bowling Association Tournament (held between February and June).

Next year's archery tournament will feature more than 500 competitors from across the United States. Even more exciting, though, among the field expected next year will be the 1996 Men's Olympic gold medal team of Justin Huish, Butch Johnson and Rod White. Huish was also the individual gold medalist during the Atlanta games this year.

Other major competitors coming to Canton will be the 1988 Olympic bronze medalist Denise Parker, 1988 silver and gold medalist Jay Barrs, 14-year-old 1995 compound boy champion Angela Moscarelli and 1996 Olympic team member Janet Dykman.

The week-long nationals is expected to offer fun for the whole family and numerous opportunities to enjoy the unique sport. In addition to the tournament, there will be the second annual Archery Youth Day Camps for Detroit area youths, team competitions and other activities.

The tournament kicks off with the opening ceremonies on Sunday, Aug. 3. Competition categories include men's, women's, intermediate, junior, cadet and team rounds. The annual awards banquet and dance is planned for Aug. 8.

Competitors will advance from the Canton event to the XXXIX World Target championships between Aug. 13-22 in Victoria, British Columbia.

Archery is the 34th most popular sport in this country and is larger than sailing, scuba diving, racquetball, trap and skeet shooting, to name just a few. There are more than 3,000 archery clubs in the United States and more than 10 million archery participants.

ROMULUS NEWS

DIGEST

Veterans seek aid for homeless

New or clean used men's winter clothing is now being sought by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Romulus Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9568.

Such clothing (including winter hats, mittens or gloves, scarves, socks or sweaters) may be dropped off at the front lobby of the VFW located at 39270 Huron River Drive or the Romulus Police Headquarters' front lobby at 11165 Olive St.

The collection is being conducted throughout the month of November.

City workers aid charities

Romulus city workers raised $63 recently in its first "dress down" fundraiser day for area charities.

The fundraiser is set up to allow employees to donate $2 and co-op students 50 cents for each designated day that workers are permitted to wear bluejeans to work. City police and ordinance officers were excluded from the fundraiser since they are required to wear uniforms.

The October 17 donation was sent to the United Fund program.

Each month a different charity will be selected to receive the city employees' donations.

Pancake supper slated Nov. 16

An "all you can eat" pancake supper is slated for Nov. 16 at the Ball Road Tabernacle Church.

The supper will be offered from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the church located at 7009 Ball Road, just off Ecorse road and between Middlebelt and Merriam roads.

Tickets for the meal cost $4 for adults and $2 for children. Bake goods, crafts and garage sale items also will be on sale that day, Carol White, president of the church's missionary band, revealed.

Romulus student earns degree

Mary Karacson of Romulus earned a bachelor of arts degree from Concordia College of Ann Arbor recently.

Karacson had a major in health care administration and completed her requirements through the school's accelerated degree completion program.

Council won't accept map

The Romulus City Council has informed the Federal Aviation Administration that it does not accept the noise contour map as drawn and implemented by Wayne County.

The council also stated it requests sound proofing for all residences south of Eureka road from Inkster to Hannan roads.

The council members supported a motion by William Wadsworth that they do not feel that Wayne County officials are responding in a timely manner on airport noise issues and that they want a meeting soon with county officials to learn what is causing the delay.

Treasurer named DDA member

City Treasurer James Napiorkowski was approved to become a voting member of the Downtown Development Authority by the City Council on Monday night.

The request came from the DDA earlier.

Bag leaves for pick-up urged

Romulus residents are urged to either bag their leaves and grass clippings or put them in containers marked "Yard Waste."

Richard Marsh Jr., community development director, said the yard waste stickers can be picked up at city hall and the special bags can be purchased at hardware or grocery stores.

Policeman added

Another new Romulus Police Officer Richard Balzer was sworn into service last week. Balzer, 35, of St. Charles, Mich. is a graduate of Delta College and previously served with the Pinconning and New Lothrop Police Departments. By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

A pizza delivery vehicle bearing a Leonardo's sign on its roof was stolen from in front of the restaurant on Sunday.

Police were told that the 1987 burgundy colored Chevrolet was taken from the Merriam road parking lot. The keys had been left in the car by the driver, police said.

In other police incidents, Detective Lt. David Early reported that a complainant rented a room on Maple court to a suspect on Halloween. Later the complainant found $1,600 in cash and a video camera were stolen.

A BB gun was used to break sliding glass in a door-wall on Wahrman road on Nov. 1. Youths had been seen shortly before the vandalism was recorded, police said.

- A formica counter top, sink, faucet and garbage disposal were found missing from a vacant apartment on Merriam road on Nov. 1, police said.
- Four tires were found slashed also on Nov. 1 outside a Van Born home and eggs were smashed on a 1986 Oldsmobile.
- A burglar broke out a Smith road home bedroom window and removed a VCR, camcorder, pellet pistol and crossbow.
- A man reported taking a female acquaintance to the Super 8 Motel the night of Nov. 2. He later found the girl and $260 in cash were both missing.
- A suspect fled from a vehicle near the Crowne Plaza Hotel on Merriman after stealing a cellular phone on Nov. 3.

Suit

Inc.) to run the school."

It continues "Romulus plans to collect state aid of approximately $5,300 per student and to pay Baron Schools Inc. $4,240, pocketing the difference." The suit says Barons Schools Inc. will then pay each student $900 to attend the school.

The Romulus School District operations in Detroit "evade the clear intent of the Revised School Code and the State Aid Act" and if allowed to continue will "trigger a race to the bottom, destroying the educational integrity of public education in Michigan."

A state legislator revealed that Romulus actions "are not exactly what we had in mind when we opted for schools of choice. But we see no apparent illegal actions either."

Detroit Schools charge that Romulus schools' use of the Detroit district for "exploitation simply shocks the conscience. Driven by the desire for profit, Romulus has invaded Detroit's boundaries to capture and maximize profit by offering a shoddy, standard product run by a company which purports to be a corporation, but is not incorporated at all, let alone one which has satisfied the additional requirements for becoming an educational corporation.

The suit states that "at a time when the thrust of statewide school finance reform seeks to equalize in per pupil school district resources Romulus' predatory activity unconscionably enhances resources for its students at the direct expense of Detroit's children."

Student mediators spotlighted

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Twenty three Romulus Middle School students were presented with certificates last week for completing two intense days of conflict resolution training.

Linda Bradfield, school counselor, revealed "mediation is a quick, fair way to resolve conflict between people. A mediator does not take sides, but serves as an impartial listener and facilitator to help people in conflict to come to an agreement."

The recent training program is part of effort needed to be expended to become a peer mediator. The workshop was conducted by Bradfield and Diane Bidovic, a social worker from the high school health clinic.

Fifteen of the students will begin serving Nov. 11 as peer mediators. They will handle disagreements, not fights.

The eighth graders include: Aimee Fischer, Tishona Gregory, Jamie Hool, Warren Howard, Keith Hubbard, Crystal Humble, Brandon Olson, Shawna Pattenrude, Christopher Tolley, John Wester, Aria Woods and Aashad Woods.

The seventh graders include: Paul Brown, Laura Colbert, Dana Dawson, Nicholas Druyor, Bridgette Miller, Erica Neckar, Ashley Runyon, John Scheneuar, Charles Searcy, Melissa Thornton and Jessica Williams.

Seventh grader Melissa Thornton is congratulated by Middle School Principal Ed Clark upon her completion recently of intense conflict resolution studies. Twenty two other students were also honored at the assembly attended by parents and educators. Counselor Linda Bradfield is shown in the center of the two.MCN photo by Kimberly Woloskie

Lilly is 'angry' over EDS letter

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Anti-deepwell activist Royal P. Lilly has reacted negatively to a letter he received from the attorney for Environmental Disposal Services recently warning of legal action against him if he continues to interfere with the EDS' project.

Lilly, a Huron Township resident and Romulus property owner, admits the letter has made him "extremely angry and frustrated."

The controversial spokesperson for Romulus Environmentalists Caring About People (RECAP) group said he was "surprised that EDS tries to claim it is a good neighbor in Romulus, but at the same time tries to strip me of my constitutional rights to speak out."

In the letter from EDS attorney Frederick K. Hoops, Lilly is informed "EDS intends to develop deep injection well facilities in other cities and townships outside of the state of Michigan.

"EDS believes that any city or township it may select will be situated in areas which neither you nor any of your relatives will be residents or will own any property.

"Therefore you will have no reason to oppose EDS' lawful business activities therein," the letter stated.

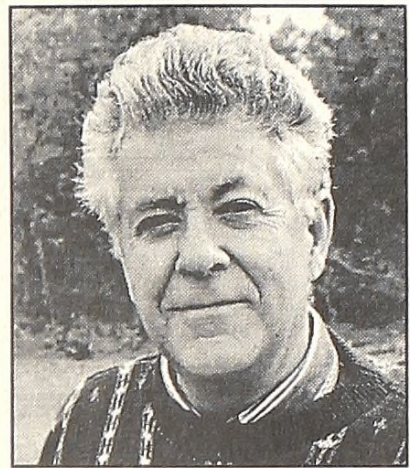

Since EDS and its officers and employees have invested substantial sums of money and time, Lilly was told "in the event you take any action that will have the effect of interfering" with EDS' prospective economic project, EDS "will bring appropriate legal action seeking relief to what is entitled as a result of any such action."

Then came the heavier warning "EDS cautions you to avoid making untrue statements in public or in writing regarding any EDS project."

In an open letter to the public, Lilly states that the recent letter along with other previous actions make him feel that he is being "threatened for making true statements and revealing the truth about EDS operations."

Lilly said at least one other local citizen has received a similar threatening letter from EDS for speaking out publicly on the well issue.

Lilly said he also has filed a report with the Huron Township police over the receipt of phone calls to his home from EDS offices.

Belleville, Sumpter join video effort

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Belleville and Sumpter Township police arraignments will now be conducted by video with the 34th District Court, court administrator Russ Franzen revealed Monday.

Arraignments for both police departments will be done from the Belleville Police Headquarters and the court house, since both police units house their prisoners there, Belleville Police Chief Hal Berryman said.

That leaves only Huron Township Police the task of driving their prisoners to the 34th District Court in Romulus for arraignments.

The first such video arraignment in Belleville occurred on Monday.

Van Buren Police were the first to go on-line with the 34th District Court in August, followed a month later by Romulus police.

Berryman, like the local police chiefs before him, praised the new technology set-up for its hiking of the security and safety efforts there and the labor cost savings for his department.

By using the video arraignments, the prisoners never have to leave the police headquarters until after they are bailed out or housed in a county jail.

Thus the chance for prisoners to escape drops dramatically and the work time it takes for an officer to transport the prisoner to court, wait for the case to be heard and then return the prisoner is eliminated, Berryman said.

All three judges courtrooms are wired for such video arraignments. On Nov. 15 local video arraignments will be completed for the first time via the 35th District Court in Plymouth. Experimental video arraignments have been tried with Plymouth, but next Friday will be the first official such action.

Video arraignments through other court houses will add a new financial benefit to the system. Previously when various courthouses are short of judges, they have had to hire visiting judges for such sessions.

However because the 34th District will be down two judges some visiting judges will be brought in this month. Chief Judge Tina Brooks Green is about to give birth to a child in the next week and Judge William Szlinis will begin a vacation tomorrow, thus an extreme shortage of bench time is evident.

Thus retired Inkster District Judge John McCartney and Highland Park Judge William Bledsoe will be used as visiting judges during their absences. Normally two district judges are not absent at the same time.

The out-of-district arraignments should be effective in cases when only one judge is missing, observers said.

Oakley and Bedell on cable TV tonight

Mayor William Oakley and Superintendent of Schools William Bedell will appear tonight on Romulus Cable Channel 40 to answer questions from the public.

Gwen Sibert, host of "The Mayor's Chair" program, said phoned-in questions (942-7571) can be called in beginning at 6 p.m.

St. Nick ready to send letters

In preparation for the upcoming Christmas season, parents, grandparents and friends are invited to send the names and addresses of good little boys and girls they know to the St. Nicholas Workshop at St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake.

In return, each child will receive a handwritten letter from St. Nicholas, along with a holy card and a booklet describing the traditions and customs associated with the Christmas season.

"We feel this is one way to bring to children the real meaning of Christmas," says Michael Krolewski, an administrative assistant.

"We are getting an earlier start because of the huge response we had a year ago."

This is the second year the college has sponsored this project. "We are getting an earlier start because of the huge response we had a year ago," Krolewski adds. "Many of the requests came just before the holiday, making it very difficult to reply in time for Christmas Day."

Krolewski asks that requests reach him by Dec. 10. In addition to name and address, include some personal data about the child and specify language, English or Polish, in which the response should be made.

A fee of $5, payable to St. Mary's College, should be included.

Requests may be mailed to St. Nicholas Workshop care of the college at 3535 Indian Trail, Orchard Lake, Mich. 48324.

Multi-talented Inkster man contributes to book

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
MCN Managing Editor

A multi-talented Inkster man is the author of Lost and Found, one of the selections in the Black Writers Guild's Day's Dawn.

Haynes, who is also an artist, is one of some 30 contributors to the anthology along with fellow Inkster residents Karen Williams and Adrian Parker. Other contributing authors are based in the Detroit area and in other Michigan communities.

Karen Williams, the senior editor of the book, is a freelance writer and poet and a contributor to the Inkster Ledger-Star. Adrian Parker, who is attending the University of Detroit Mercy as a dentistry major, wrote her short story as a junior at Inkster High School.

"I'm very proud to have Adrian's work in the anthology. She was one of 15 students in a sophomore writing class at Inkster High School, and the only who continued with her writing," said Haynes who works with the Black Writers Guild and the Arts League of Michigan to promote creative writing in the schools.

As a member of the guild, Haynes was involved in the selection process for the anthology and also in the fundraising and marketing of the book.

"We got tons of responses after we announced that we were seeking black writers to submit short stories for the anthology," Haynes said.

His short story, Lost and Found is about the "finding" of a young boy accused of a petty crime by a caring social worker and a store manager. An unexpected twist in the story provides a second discovery and a unique ending to the tale.

Because the characters in the story seemed so real, Haynes was asked whether it was based on a true incident.

"No. It is a work of fiction — pure and simple. I began with the characters and then the story almost seemed to write itself," Haynes explained, noting that the story unfolded as he wrote it.

While best known for his art works, Haynes has worked at many jobs, thus providing himself with insights into the characters and souls of the many people he encountered.

"I didn't view it as a learning experience at the time. It was a matter of survival," Haynes said, noting that at various times he was employed as an insurance agent, cab driver, and as a construction and factory worker. Currently, he is an account representative for the Inkster Ledger-Star.

"All the time that I worked at various jobs, I knew that I wanted to do something creative. There was a child inside of me crying out," Haynes said. "I first started writing a diary, entering some of my philosophical thoughts."

Originally from Detroit, Haynes served in the Air Force and then attended

Wayne County Community College and Wayne State University to further his study of creative writing.

Haynes began writing in 1978-79 and became serious about it in 1982-83. Some of his poems have been published in anthologies by the University of Baltimore and Michigan State University. At the same time, Haynes continued to express himself by painting.

"I guess I might be called a Jack-of-all-trades, but I haven't mastered them all yet," Haynes said. "Now that I go back and look at some of my paintings, I can see similar themes as those in my writings."

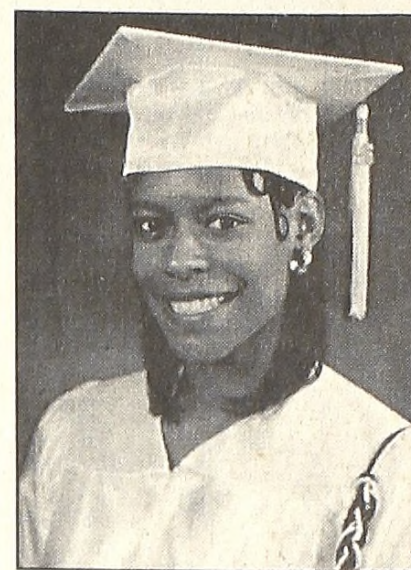

At present, Haynes is not painting, but he has a blank canvas ready for the time that the creative urge moves him in that direction.

Now his focus is on promoting the new book and preparing for another edition of the anthology.

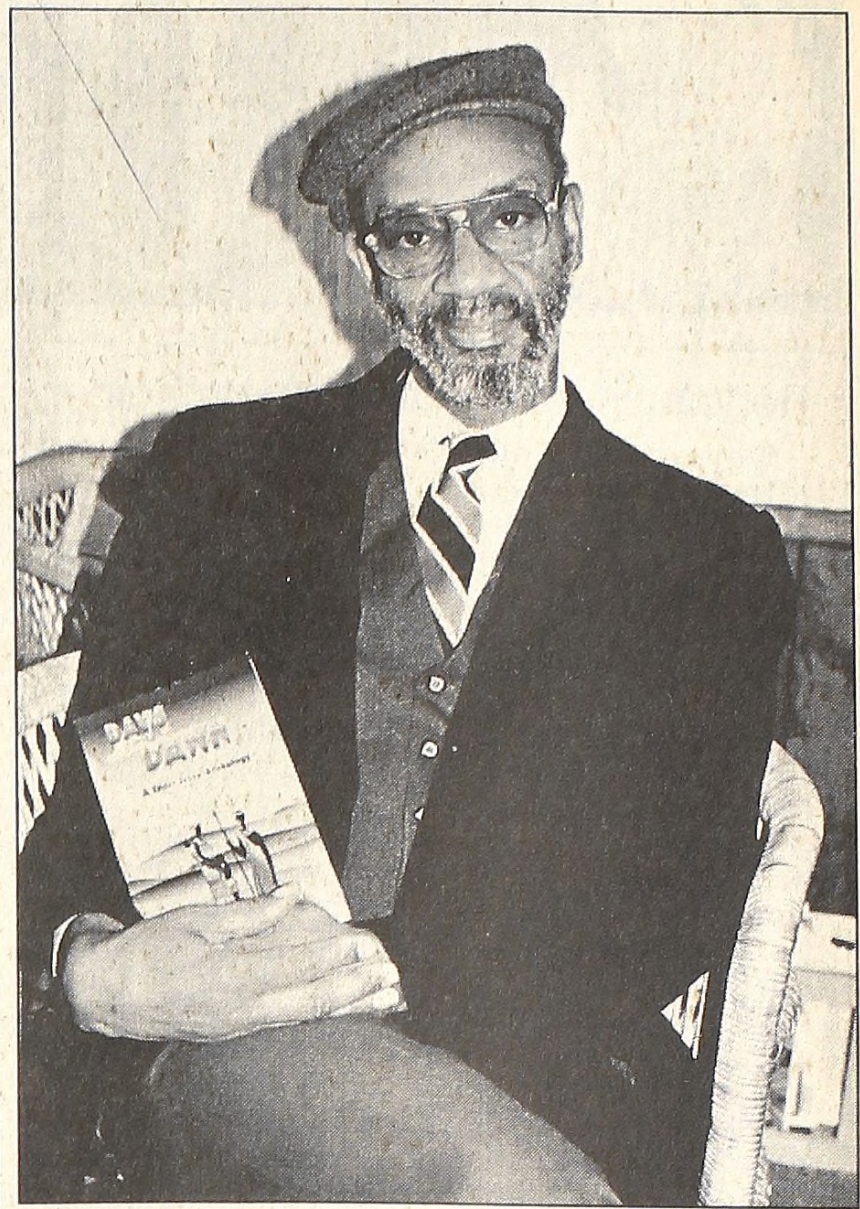

Those interested in purchasing a book may contact Haynes at 728-0411 or send a check for $15.50 (postage included) to Black Writer's Guild, 5601 W. Warren, Detroit, Mich. 48210.

Black anthology weaves compelling stories

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
MCN Managing Editor

Day's Dawn a short story anthology, published by the Detroit Black Writer's Guild, delivers a powerful and enlightening look into the daily lives of ordinary and extraordinary people.

The many writers, including several from Inkster, weave heart-warming stories about family life and the resilience of those oppressed by poverty, drugs and racism. Throughout the stories — even those telling tales of unhappiness and despair — there seems to be a thread of hopefulness and a strong undercurrent of family love and support.

Reading the stories is a "feast for the soul," wherein one can bask in the warmth of family relationships as well as sympathize and empathize with the sadness and suffering that also is revealed in its pages.

It is an impossible task to name a favorite or a best story from among the 32 works, because each one is unique. Thus, how can one compare the story of the love of a grandparent to the tale about the death of a heroin addict?

Of special interest to me were the stories by Inkster res-

Meadows, the township will receive about $600,000 additional dollars.

If landfills are such a threat to out ground water and our children, why aren't we fighting Woodland Meadows tooth and nail? Does money mean so much to us? Does Woodland Meadows have some secret formula to prevent it from springing leaks? Is the theory that all landfills leak just a convenient weapon against EQ?

Finally, are our township officials really environmentalists, or is the anti-EQ campaign just a convenient campaign issue?

Army operates in red

To the editor:

The familiar ring of the bell from the red round kettle heralds in the holiday season as the Salvation Army serves to help people move from the "red" to the "black" in their lives. Serving the Plymouth-Canton-Northville communities for many years the Salvation Army is a stable and predictable force in combating poverty, homelessness, hunger and disaster.

Throughout the year families and individuals are helped when disaster befalls them. The extensive food pantry is administered by the Corps social worker dispersing food to local people facing hunger. Temporary shelter is available to provide a warm clean place for people who need to sleep. Should a disaster befall our communities, such as a tornado or fire, the Corps is ready on a minutes' notice to respond with aid, help, food, and support.

Outreach programs, including day care and summer camp, are administered by Martha Schultz serving the needs of a variety of families while providing a safe and educational environment for our young people. The fees are minimal for these programs with scholarships available.

The Corps building provides a gymnasium and meeting rooms that sports and support groups may rent for a nominal fee.

Administrative costs of the Army are among the lowest of all charitable organizations. Funds are raised through mail contributions, kettle campaigns, endowments, and United Way gifts.

As families and individuals experience misfortune or a temporary downturn in their lives the Salvation Army is there to help people operate in the "black" instead of the "red".

Dance response

To the editor:

I have received Gary Clark's letter of concern regarding our Wayne Memorial High School's Homecoming Dance.

I'm sorry to say, but the alleged facts are somewhat distorted.

I would think that a person of your responsibility would investigate the total situation prior to writing a demeaning and unfounded letter.

This communication of yours certainly identifies the caliber of person you are who speaks and passes judgment before all the facts are known to all parties involved.

If you would have come in to school to discuss your dissatisfaction I would have been most happy to enlighten and clarify the schools factual position.

Food sought

To the editor:

For the seventh consecutive year, Gleaners Community Food Bank is asking southeast Michigan residents to buy cases of food for the less fortunate among us. Last year, the "Help Feed the Hungry: Buy a Case of Food" program raised more than $250,000 which was used to purchase food for over 200 non-profit member soup kitchens, emergency shelters, church pantries, and other feeding agencies.

Gleaners distributes more than one million pounds of food every month to our member agencies. Our agencies provide more than 200,000 meals every week to the hungry and poor, it is estimated that 41 percent of the hungry in our community are children.

Once again, all gifts received through the "Help Feed the Hungry: Buy a Case of Food" program are used exclusively for the purchase and distribution of food to our member feeding agencies.

idents: Karen Williams, who is senior editor of the book; Robert J. Haynes, who is in charge of marketing and fund raising for the project, and Adrian Parker of Inkster High School.

Williams' ironic ending to Night Club, the sad tale of loss in Beauty Queen and the death of a good man in My Father's Daughter make her three short stories powerful and thought-provoking. Parker's story, The Great Awakening is an intriguing tale of coincidence and discovery, and Haynes' Lost and Found is an eloquent plea for a second chance for a delinquent teen.

Among the stories that especially touched me were Locket of Dreams by Donna Clovis, a delightful modern fairy tale; winter in Michigan dangerous," Engler warns. "Abrupt changes in the weather that come with the usual parade of winter storms are enough to turn enjoyment of the season into tragedy."

Whether traveling across state or across town to work, Engler said, ice and bitter cold air can deplete your personal energy.

Thus the Severe Weather Coalition suggests residents keep emergency supplies in the home and vehicle.

They include first aid kits, battery-powered radios, flashlights, extra batteries, matches, blankets, warm clothes and non-perishable foods.

The anthology should stir pride in its black readers and plant seeds of understanding in its white readers.

Standard Federal co-sponsors project

Standard Federal Bank, the nation's ninth leading mortgage lender, has joined Inkster's Robert E. Penn & Associates, a minority-owned business consultant and developer, and Lundy Construction Company to develop Holley Estates, a new housing project of single family homes in Inkster.

The bank will provide construction loans for builder's models as well as mortgage financing to home buyers in the 40-lot development. Two of the 40 lots have already been sold with financing from Standard Federal. When completed, Holley Estates will feature 40 new custom homes priced from approximately $135,000. These innovative homes will mark the first up-scale new construction in Inkster since 1959.

"Standard Federal Bank wants to make very home loan it can in Inkster and this is a great opportunity to do that," said Standard Federal Executive Vice President Garry G. Carley. "With ninety Banking Centers and five Home Lending Centers in the metropolitan Detroit area, our home lending experts are available, even outside of normal business hours, to provide loan counseling, initiate mortgage pre-qualifications and to take mortgage loan applications for anyone interested in buy a home in Holley Estates."

Mr. Carley added, "We have established a significant presence in the Inkster community. Bank-sponsored Community Home Buyers Seminars have been conducted since July, and Standard Federal will continue to host a monthly seminar until the construction of Holley Estates is complete." Standard Federal's commitment to Holley estates is comparable to Victoria Park, the 156-home subdivision in the city of Detroit, which, according to HUD Secretary Henry Cisneros, has become a national model for community redevelopment.

"Experience has shown that when government, community and private enterprise come together, great things can happen," Mr. Carley stated. "We look forward to working with our new partners to increase the options for housing in Inkster."

State to receive $1.3 million grant to combat impaired drivers

Michigan has been awarded approximately $1.3 million in grant funds by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) to step up the fight against impaired driving. The incentive money was awarded based on the state's ability to meet criteria that reflect serious and ongoing efforts to reduce alcohol-related fatalities.

Supplemental federal funding will allow the state to increase its efforts to address the drunk driving problem. Nearly 40 percent of the state's traffic fatalities are alcohol-related and more than 500 people died in alcohol-related crashes in 1995.

"We have not, by any means, won the battle against drunk driving as reflected in the increase in the number of alcohol-related fatalities in 1995," said Betty J. Mercer, division director, Michigan State Police. "Enhanced funding will dramatically improve our ability to address the causes of drunk driving and develop solutions."

While spending plans are not yet finalized, money will be used for support of local community programs, targeted enforcement, specialized equipment and training, new technology and public information and education.

MADD's 1997 poster essay contest opens

With the federal government stating that drug use among youth across the nation is up 78 percent, Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), Michigan is encouraging Michigan youth to take a stand and make a choice not to use alcohol-- the preferred drug among many youths.

MADD's annual poster/essay contest is underway with a theme that re-emphasizes its commitment to zero tolerance among those under 21: "My world. My choice. No alcohol."

"Now more than ever we need to reach our young people with the message that there are more youth making the choice to live drug-free, and that includes alcohol -- and they aren't afraid to tell the world that they're drug free," said Bethany Goodman, MADD, Michigan executive director.

The contest is open to all students in elementary through high school. Students can submit entries in each of the categories. The poster competition is open to students in grades 1-12 and the essay competition is open to students in grades 4-12. This year, two new categories were added to the contest for grades 7-12: black and white photos and video public service announcements (PSAs). All entries are judged within the appropriate grade divisions.

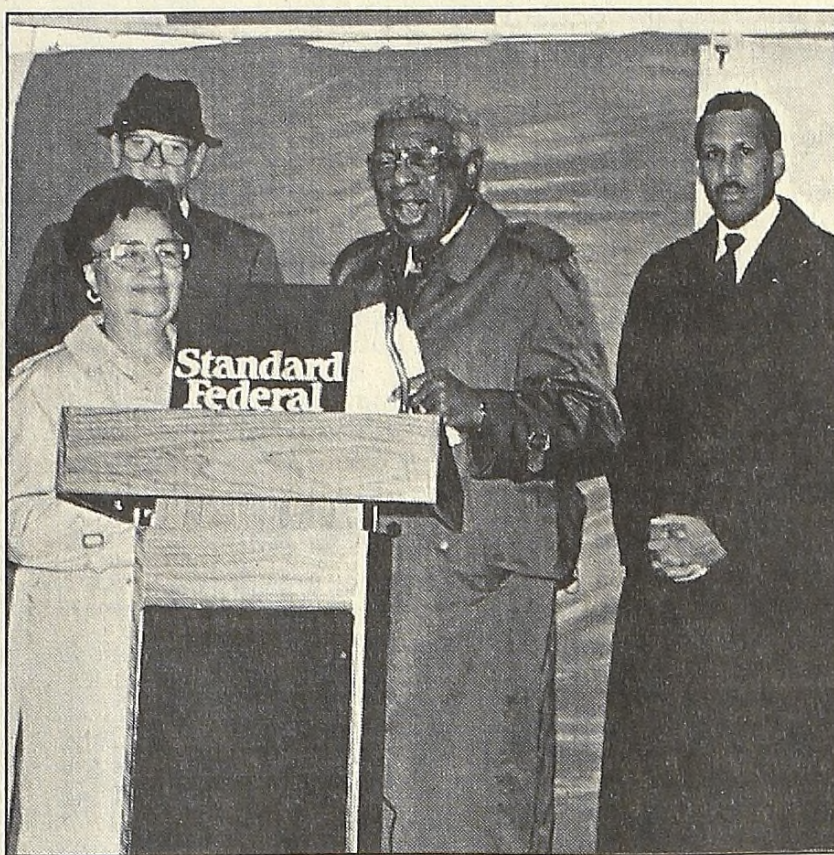

The student entry deadline is Jan. 31, 1997. All entries must be postmarked on or before this date. The state contest judging is March 12, 1997.

To obtain an official MADD poster/contest entry form and rules, contact your local MADD chapter, or the MADD Michigan state office, 910 Eastlawn Drive, Midland, Mich. 48642, phone (517) 631-6233.

Couple purchases first home in Inkster sub

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
MCN Managing Editor

The day of the ground-breaking ceremony for the Willis' new home was cold and blustery, but the spirit and enthusiasm registered by the participants was warm and hopeful.

Sylvia and Eric Willis are the first couple to purchase a house in the new Holley Estates development on Harrison Street, adjacent to St. Clement's Episcopal Church.

The Willises, married this past August, are typical of the people that developer Robert Penn plans to attract to the new development -- young, professional couples. Sylvia is a teacher at the University Charter School, operated by Wayne State University, and the youth minister at Faith Emmanuel Church. Eric is a systems analyst for a Plymouth firm.

"We're very excited to be the first couple at Holley Estates," said Sylvia Willis.

On Wednesday, a crowd of Inkster officials, bank representatives, members of the development team and the Willises gathered for the ground-breaking ceremony during which the Rev. Beverly Tasy, rector of St. Clement's Church led a prayer.

In his introductory speech, developer Robert Penn said the future of Inkster looks bright, especially with the development at Metro Airport, which will bring with it new businesses and jobs and a need for housing near the airport. With the new shopping center and other developments planned for the city, Penn believes the city will experience its own renaissance.

Inkster Councilwoman Naomi James said, "There were a lot of doubting Thomases when Robert Penn announced his plans, but he assured me it would happen and it has."

Councilman James Collier predicted that in the next two years "Inkster will grow to be a happy place to live -- a great place to live."

"We'll make sure that the administrative staff helps to make this happen," said City Manager Margie Rose. "This is a sign of good things happening."

Inkster Police Chief Terry Colwell used the opportunity to announce that the city has received a second Community Policing Grant that will be used to establish four mini-stations in the city -- one in each quadrant.

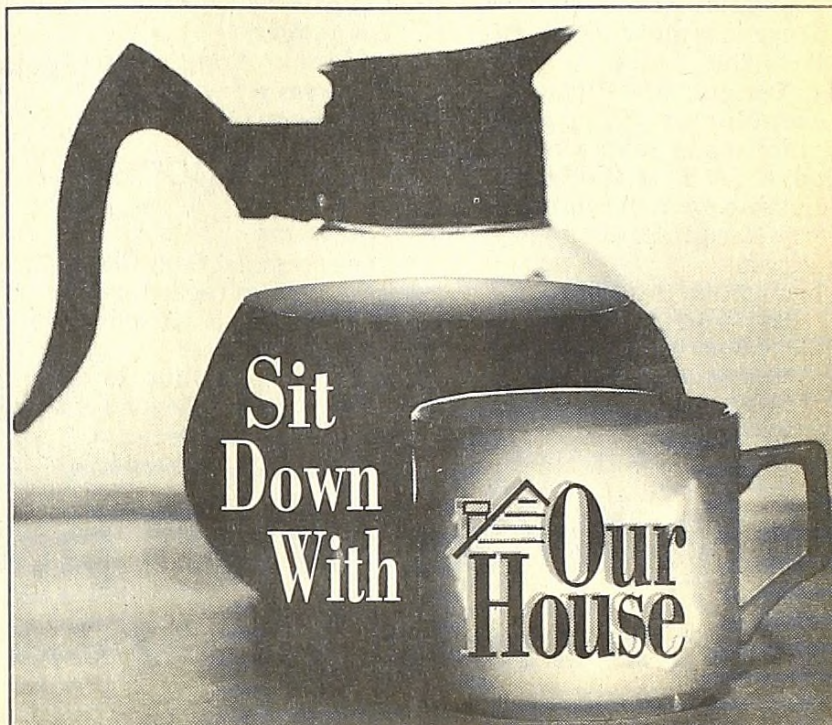

City Clerk Delphine Odem said "the new development is a sign that this area will flourish."

The first home is expected to be ready for occupancy in six months. Phase One involved 40 homes with another 80 projected for Phase Two, Penn said.

A reception was held in the social room of St. Clement's Church following the ground breaking ceremony.

New computers sends voters packing

By KIMBERLY WOLOSKIE
MCN Staff Writer

Change is good. Some residents, however, may find fault with that after standing in line for up to four hours to cast their ballot following the implementation of a new touch-screen voting system in Westland.

Lengthy delays were attributed to voters being unfamiliar with the new Patriot system, the length of time it took the computers to process the information, a lengthy ballot and heavy precinct turnout.

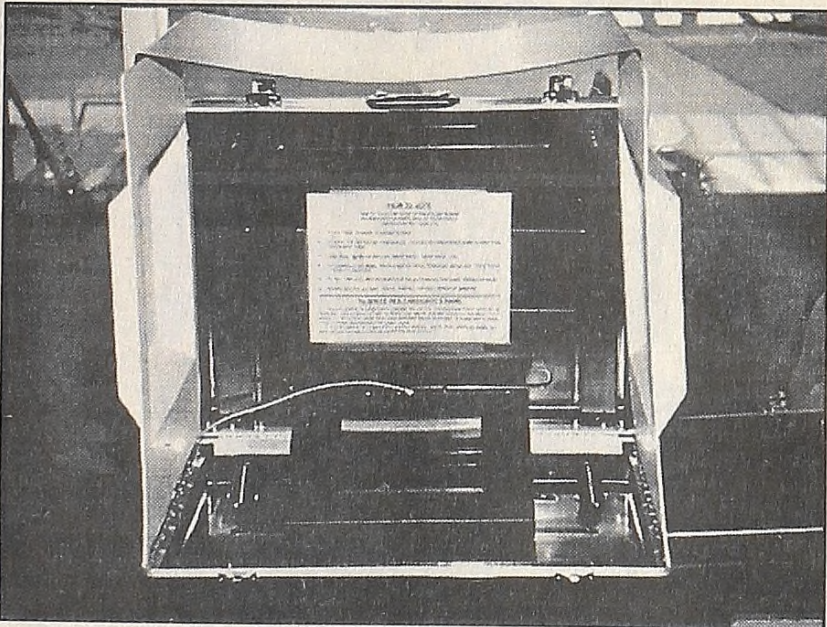

While not all of the comments were negative, voters at precincts such as Jefferson-Barns, Lincoln, and P.D. Graham Elementary School were handed emergency paper ballots after problems with the computer system could not be corrected and the city clerk contacted the state for assistance.

"I thought the new system was simple to use," said Dan Baker, 34, of Westland. "It only took me about three minutes to go through the entire ballot but the system did seem slow to switch from screen to screen."

An injunction filed in Federal Court that sought to extend the polling hours until 10 p.m. to allow voters additional time at the polls, was denied according to a local attorney. Some voters said they got tired of waiting in the long lines subsequently walking out of several polling sites rather than waiting it out to vote.

"I waited in line for more than two hours. I finally said 'forget it, it's not worth the hassle,'" said one resident (requested name not be printed).

Assessment of the new system will follow in the coming weeks in light of the problems that occurred Tuesday evening.

The classic by E.B. White tells the tale of how a little pig named Wilbur is saved by a spider who is able to weave magical words in her web.

The production can be seen at 10 a.m., 1 and 7:30 p.m. Nov. 15; 2 and 4 p.m. Nov. 16, and 2 p.m. Nov. 17 at the Towsley Auditorium on the campus of Washtnaw Community College in the Morris Lawrence Building, 4800 E. Huron River Drive.

The production will continue at the Henry Ford Museum throughout the month of December (Dec. 4 to Jan. 3).

For information about Towsley Auditorium performances, call 763-TKTS, and for information about the Henry Ford Museum engagement, call 271-1220, extension 383.

'Tartuffe' opens at Hilberry

French dramatist Moliere's most popular play, Tartuffe opens at Wayne State University's Hilberry Theatre on Nov. 15 and will run through Feb. 1.

The play is a sophisticated comedy about the trials and anxieties of Orgon and his wife, Elmire, and their two children, Damis and Mariane. Tartuffe comes into Orgon's life to try to swindle him out of his fortune by marrying his daughter. Elmire lays down an ingenious trap for Tartuffe, and the play continues with numerous subplots.

The play runs in rotating repertory with Shakespeare's A Taming of the Shrew, and A.R. Gurney's The Dining Room and Alan Ayckbourn's Time of My Life.

Call the box office at 577-2972 Monday through Saturday between 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. for dates and times of performances.

At the Studio Theatre, also located on the WSU campus, Craig Lucas's Blue Window will be staged Nov. 14 through 17 and 21 through 24.

Area group launches new season

A Broadway-style production opens the season at the Huron Civic Theatre, which stages its plays at the Huron Civic Auditorium, 32044 Huron River Drive in Huron Township — just 10 minutes south of Metro Airport.

A big, brassy, bodacious musical revue, Celebration: Broadway's Best opens the season on Nov. 8 and continues on Nov. 9, 10, 15, 16 and 17. Show time is 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and 3 p.m. on Sunday.

For the holiday season, the HCT presents The Nutcracker with the Taylor Ballet Americana and the Southern Great Lakes Symphony Orchestra. The production is slated at 8 p.m. Dec. 13, 3 and 8 p.m. Dec. 14 and 3 p.m. Dec. 15.

Ticket information is available by calling the box office at 782-5380.

'Show Boat' cruises into Detroit in March

Tickets are already on sale for the limited engagement of Show Boat which will be staged at the Masonic Temple Theatre, beginning March 13.

The $10 million production of the Jerome Kern-Oscar Hammerstein II musical will arrive direct from Broadway.

The production calls for an acting company of nearly 70 actors and 30 musicians plus some 70 people back stage. The show features 500 costumes, the Cotton Blossom floating theater, another 500 props and four turn-of-the-century wagons and carriages.

Show Boat was the most honored show of the 1994-95 Broadway season, winning five Tony Awards. It also earned five New York Drama Desk Awards.

The original Broadway production, which opened in December 1927, broke tradition by becoming the first musical play to combine serious, powerful themes with a rich

Broadway score and a lavish, physical stage presentation. It was innovative in its time because of its mature subject matter — the social conditions and racial tensions in the South of the 1890s, marital discord and self-destruction through alcoholism.

Show Boat boasts a treasure trove of classic songs, such as "Ol' Man River," "Can't Help Loving, Only Make Believe" and "Bill."

Show Boat begins previews with a special matinee at 1 p.m. March 13, with the official opening night planned at 5 p.m. March 16. Evening performances of the musical are slated for Tuesday through Saturday at 8 p.m. and on certain Sundays at 7:30 p.m. Matinee performances are at 2 p.m. weekends with special Wednesday matinees offered at 1 p.m. March 26 and April 16.

For further information, call the Masonic Temple Theatre box office at 832-2232.

Purple Rose blossoms with plays

The Purple Rose Theatre in Chelsea, founded by actor Jeff Daniels, will stage four plays through August, the first of which was written by Daniels.

Apartment 3A, Daniel's play, tells about a woman who signs a lease on a new apartment and also gets a new lease on life and love. It will play through Nov. 24.

The new year will begin with Labor Day, the story of an unusual end-of-summer holiday for four people. The play will be staged from Jan. 16 through March 9.

A New Play by Lanford Wilson opens on March 27 and runs through May 18. Pulitzer Prize winning playwright Lanford Wilson's play is an original script for the Purple Rose Theatre Company.

The final play of the 1996-97 season will be Off the Map, about a family living in the mountains of New Mexico who are visited by an Internal Revenue agent.

Performances are at 8 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday. Sunday performances are at 2 and 7 p.m.

Because of limited space, ticket reservations are suggested.

Tickets can be ordered from the box office, 475-7902.

Stomp returns to pick up the beat

Stomp, featuring an eight-member percussion group, returns to Detroit for the third time in three years for a Dec. 3 to 15 engagement.

The young cast makes rhythm out of anything — synchronized brooms, wooden poles, trash cans, paper bags and anything else that can thump, bump, click or jingle.

Performances will be staged at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 7:30 p.m. on Sunday and 2 p.m. on weekend matinees.

Tickets for Stomp are on sale at the Fisher Theatre box office and at all Ticketmaster locations.

7 dwarfs appear on Marquis stage

Holiday magic will fill the historic Marquis Theatre as a musical adaptation of the classic story, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs comes alive on stage from Nov. 26 to Jan. 26.

Performance times are at 2:30 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays at the Marquis Theatre, 135 E. Main, Northville.

For special school dates and times, birthdays, group rates and reservations, call the Marquis Theatre

Booth Colman returns as Ebenezer Scrooge in Meadow Brook Theatre's 15th anniversary production of A Christmas Carol, Nov. 29 through Dec. 29. MCN Special Photo

Drama, comedy offered

The 1996-97 season at Oakland University's Meadow Brook Theatre features a variety of plays from comedies to dramas.

Through Nov. 17, Just a Second, a comedy sequel to Beau Jest will be featured on the Meadow Brook stage.

The following shows are scheduled through May:

- A Mark Twain Storybook at 7 p.m. Nov. 19

- A Christmas Carol, the Dickens' classic with new sets and costumes, will be staged from Nov. 29 through Dec. 29.
- The Woman in Black, a scary ghost story, will be staged from Jan. 8, 1997 through Feb. 2.

- I Am a Man, a play based on the 1968 Memphis sanitation workers' strike, will be staged Feb. 12 through March 9.

- Arcadia, a romantic comedy/mystery, is slated from March 19 through April 13.

- Appalachian Strings, a new musical, will close the season with its April 23 to May 18 engagement.

Ticket information is available by calling 810-377-3300.

Movin' feet

Movin' Theatre, the Wayne State University touring dance company, hits the road again beginning in January. The 1997 show, From Ragtime to Rock 'n' Roll presents a high energy ride through the nation's most prolific period of dance. Dave Baca of Westland is at the right in the third row. Call 577-3010 for information or to book a performance. MCN Special Photo

'Chorus Line' returns to Fisher

An eight-performance engagement of A Chorus Line will be staged at the Fisher Theatre beginning Dec. 23.

A Chorus Line has been described as the "best musical ever." It debuted in 1975 and ended its Broadway run in 1990. Now, more than six years later, the musical will tour the U.S. Original cast member, Baayork Lee, who created the role of Connie Wong based on her own life, will direct and choreograph the touring production.

The play won nine Tony Awards, the Pulitzer Prize, five Drama Desk Awards, the New York Drama Critics Award for Best Musical and a Special Tony Award as the longest running show in Broadway history.

Tickets for the eight performances are on sale at the Fisher Box Office.

Performances are slated at 8 p.m. Dec. 23, 26 and 28, at 1 p.m. Dec. 26, 2 p.m. Dec. 28 and 29 and 7:30 p.m. Dec. 29.

Tickets can be purchased at the Detroit Opera House Ticket Office, the Fisher Theatre Box Office and all Ticketmaster locations.

Speaker emphasizes caring

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
MCN Managing Editor

When Florine Mark, president of W.W. Group, the largest Weight Watchers' franchise, spoke at the Women of Achievement Awards Luncheon, she barely touched on the subject of calories.

Her one reference was to extend special permission for the luncheon audience to eat and enjoy their chocolate calorie-laden dessert.

Instead Mark's focus was on women caring for themselves, both physically and emotionally.

"Women have a juggling act to balance home and work," said Mark, the mother of five and grandmother of 18.

"We need to be good to ourselves, taking time out just for ourselves," said sharing a technique she learned from her mother-in-law.

"My mother-in-law always took one day a month to stay in bed and relax. She told everyone that it was because of her 'lung condition,' but she confided to me that she did it just because she deserved a rest," Mark said.

"I do that now because it enriches me by just taking time for me," said the busy entrepreneur. "I do it on a weekday because it seems more like cheating to take a week day off than a day during the weekend."

The point, she said, is that women should not become so busy with their work and with nurturing others that they forget to take care of themselves.

Mark said there are sacrifices to be made to be a successful career woman. For her, it is the absence of women friends.

"To have a good friend, you must be a good friend, and I don't have time. I do have a few good friends who understand that I can't always return phone calls or be available," Mark said. "To make up for this, I try to belong to as many women's organizations as I can."

The sacrifices that women must make to succeed in their careers is evidenced in the fact that in a group of 200 top women in business, 50 percent of them are unmarried without children, Mark said.

"To be successful, you must first decide what you want. It's OK to change, but you must have a goal. Then, decide what you are willing to give up to attain your goal. There is no free ride in life," Mark said.

She said the "fire in her belly" and the "passion in her heart" has driven her career.

When Mark prepares to hire people, she looks for the same qualities as she possesses.

"If you have energy and excitement, a love of live and empathy plus a fire in your belly and a passion in your heart, you will be successful," Mark said.

The entrepreneur starts her day off by talking to herself in the mirror with words of encouragement, such as, "this will be a wonderful day and I will be successful today!"

Although, at first, her husband questioned her about her morning talks to the mirror, Mark said that he now does the same.

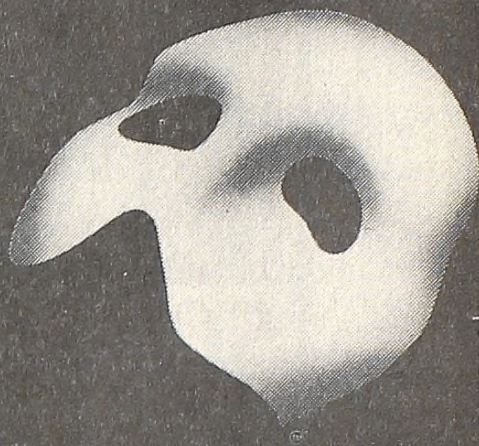

"Set goals, dream dreams and carry them through," said Mark.

Artist Sharon Sims (right), who won the award for Arts/Communication, is congratulated by Marge Torok, who nominated her. The other awards were presented to Jennifer Baron who was honored as the Young Woman of Achievement for 1996 and Jennifer Granholm who was honored in the Government/Law category. Aurora has it all, in all conditions

By RITA BEDELL
MCN Special Writer

This week I had the pleasure of driving the Oldsmobile Aurora. Wow! What a ride! What can I say! There isn't really anything this vehicle lacks. From the well lit interior to the high powered V8, this car has it all.

I drove through four types of terrain, dry, rain, snow and ice. The Aurora has excellent traction. With the push of a button, you set your traction control. When driving into the snow and ice covered roads, the car handled the same as if it were on dry roads. The traction control would light up and do its job.

With the brilliant blue lights on the instrument panel,

Aurora

Michigan Community Newspapers (Belleville Enterprise, Canton Eagle, Inkster Ledger Star, Romulus Roman, Wayne Eagle, and Westland Eagle) in conjunction with area car dealers, announces the $10,000 CAR GIVEAWAY contest.

That's Right! Readers of Michigan Community Newspapers will have an opportunity to win $10,000* (must be utilized towards the purchase or lease of a new or used vehicle from participating auto dealers) in this unique contest that begins September 12 and runs through November 21.

Here's How it Works: Simply cut out the entry blanks below and deposit them in the ballot boxes at the respective dealerships. Readers can enter once a week at each of the dealerships, for the ten weeks of the contest. Those that enter more than once a week will be disqualified.

Each week a finalist will be chosen from the entries deposited. The grand prize winner will be chosen from the 10 finalists in late November.

So don't be shy. Lets try to win the best Christmas gift of all! You have just as good an opportunity as the next reader to bring home a car.

This contest requires no purchase. All you need to do is fill out the entry blanks provided and visit your friendly car dealers. The weather may be getting cold but the deals are hot and the cars are fun.

*MCN will make your first $10,000 in payments on a vehicle of your choice (Purchase or Lease) from any of the participating dealers.

Strategic Fund approves bond issue

The Michigan Strategic Fund (MSF), an agency of the Michigan Jobs Commission, recently approved a $3.3 million tax-exempt bond issue to help finance the expansion of two companies: the Ort Tool & Die Corporation in Erie and M & F Machine and Tool Inc., in Temperance. The project for Ort Tool & Die, to be located in Erie (Monroe County), includes the construction of a 6,000 square foot addition to the existing manufacturing facility and the acquisition and installation of machinery and equipment. M & F Tool, Inc., will be purchasing and installing equipment and machinery at their plant in Temperance, in Monroe County. "Projects such as this provide increased job opportunities for Michigan residents. We are pleased to be able to provide support," said Doug Rothwell, chief executive officer and department director of the Michigan Jobs Commission. Both companies are engaged in the design, engineering, manufacturing and assembling of customized machines used primarily by the plastics industry. The project activities will result in the creation of two new jobs initially and an additional ten new jobs at full operation. The MSF, part of the Michigan Jobs Commission, can issue Industrial Development Revenue Bonds to finance projects for manufacturers, solid waste/cogeneration companies, and certain non-profit corporations. Bond financing lessens the cost of borrowing because the interest paid to the bond buyer is exempt.

"Today consumers are especially concerned with environmental issues. They understand that a real tree is naturally a recyclable, renewable resource." According to Koelling, there is a widespread misconception that natural resources are destroyed when real trees are cut. "The fact is that Christmas trees are no different than any other agricultural crop," she said. "These trees are raised to be harvested as Christmas trees. If consumers did not buy real trees, farmers would not grow them and there would be about a million fewer acres of trees growing in the U.S." Koelling said that for every tree harvested 2-3 new trees are planted in its place. Also, trees grown as Christmas trees may benefit the environment far more than older, established trees. Younger trees, like Christmas trees, release more oxygen than older trees because they grow faster. In addition, Christmas trees are grown in areas where trees and other crops might not otherwise grow. Millions of Christmas trees are grown in soils that are not suitable for other crops. They create scenic green belts, stabilize soil, protect water supplies, and provide refuge for wildlife. Most importantly, when the season is over, real trees provide mulch and soil enrichment for gardens and parks. Koelling estimates more than 37 million families in the United States will purchase real trees this year with 4.5 million coming from Michigan farms.

Phone call helps avoid damage to utility lines

Before turning the first spadeful of earth for a tree, fence, or deck foundation, Detroit Edison advises customers to call MISS DIG to request free location markings for underground public utility lines or assistance with overhead electric lines.

A free phone call can prevent injury to a do-it-yourselfer or damage to overhead electric or underground public utility lines that could interrupt utility service, said Glenn Spence, retail customer marketing representative for Detroit Edison and president, MISS DIG System Inc. "Home improvement chores can pose a danger if you don't know the locations of overhead and underground utility lines or other underground utilities," Spence said. "A phone call to MISS DIG can help you plan your work to avoid any problems contact with utilities may cause." Call MISS DIG at 1-800-482-7171 weekdays between 6 a.m. and 7 p.m. at least three working days before you expect to begin an outdoor project. MISS DIG will notify participating members who will mark the locations of underground utilities on your

Glenn fights to the finish to stay perfect

Don't break out the bubbly, yet

For one brief moment Friday night Westland John Glenn and coach Chuck Gordon and his staff celebrated.

The celebration was triggered by a come-from-behind victory over Wayne Memorial.

But that's about all the time they had to celebrate. They and their unblemished 9-0 record will be placed on the block at 1:30 p.m. Saturday on the home field when they encounter a formidable playoff foe, Detroit Catholic Central.

DCC, known these days as Catholic Central High School, under coach Tom Mach has captured three Class AA state football championships since the beginning of the decade (1990, 1992, and 1995). The Shamrocks have a rich tradition in producing some of the finest football, basketball and baseball players in the state.

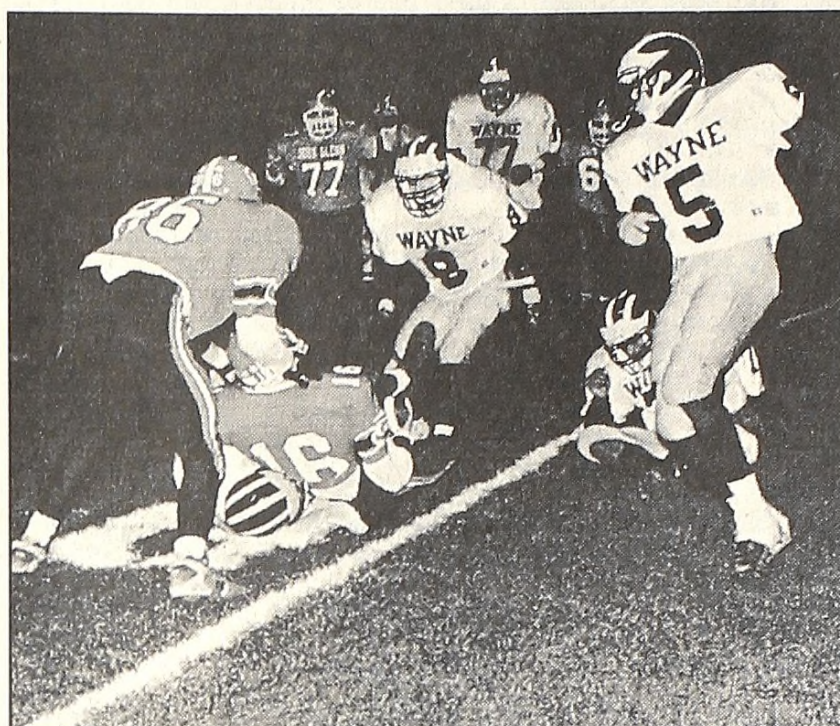

The younger - Glenn quarterback Justin Berent is a junior; running back Reggie Spearmon is a sophomore; fullback-linebacker Antonio Gibson is a junior - tougher - Matt Griglio, Sean Heard, David Jarrett - and smarter Rockets have yet to win a state title.

They came close. In 1993, Glenn reached the state finals and dropped a heartbreaking 12-7 decision to Fordson.

This year, ranked as high as No. 2 in the state, the Rockets been untouchable in the Western Lakes Conference and have come out of their slugs-fests, as shown by their latest

Rockets are on a 9-0 roll

Teetering on the verge of falling victim to an unheralded Wayne Memorial for the second time in as many years, state-ranked Westland John Glenn came down out of the clouds and used the solid ground to pound their arch foes into submission Friday night before a crowd of some 5,000 freezing fans.

Wayne worked its way to an 18-7 lead - and led most of the game - and was on the brink of the upset of the season when Glenn decided to abandon its passing for its earthly game. O.K. ground game.

The strategy worked for the reigning Western Lakes Conference champs as running backs Antonio Gibson and Reggie Spearmon led the undefeated Rockets to a 36-18 victory over their cross-district opponents and to an untarnished 9-0 record and into the state playoffs.

It is the third time since 1976 that Glenn has own perfect regular season records. Coach Gerry Lutrie did it in 1976 and coach Chuck Gordon accomplished the feat nine years later (1985). With this year's 9-0 mark, Gordon becomes the first coach in Glenn's history to boast two undefeated seasons.

Glenn's victory over Wayne and an unexpected (but welcomed by Glenn) Farmington win on Saturday gives the Rockets the necessary playoff bonus points to finish first in Region 3. That will give them "home field" advantage for the playoffs. They will play Detroit Catholic Central at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in the first round of the Class AA playoffs. (See Related Story on this page).

Wayne was within 11 minutes of what would have been its biggest football victory in recent football history.

Though the loss disappointed Wayne coach Chuck Howton, he stressed that Glenn "should be given a lot of credit."

"Glenn played an excellent football game. They hung in there and battled back and that's the sign of a championship team," said Howton. "For three quarters, we had them on the rope. But I felt we tired. They wore us down in that final quarter."

The loss dropped Wayne to a 5-4 overall record.

Wayne stunned their hosts as Lavelle Guess came up with a touchdown that local that sent scribes to the record books seeking an answer. Here's what caused the excitement.

Is was a case of which team came to play, according to Plymouth-Salem coach Tom Moshimer.

And it was Salem, not arch-rival, Plymouth-Canton, that displayed "true grit."

"Our kids came to play," said Moshimer, after the Rocks crushed Canton 36-20 Friday night before 4,000 shivering diehard fans. "They gave it everything they had and it showed on the scoreboard."

It also a crowning victory for the veteran Salem coach who ended his third decade as the Rocks' head football coach with a hard-earned victory and a 6-3 overall mark.

It was a victory that Canton fought hard to keep in its victory column.

The battle for bragging rights in Plymouth-Canton Community School District stayed close right to the final quarter when the Rocks erupted for two touchdowns that sealed Canton's fate and broke open a close 22-14 game.

Salem drew blood first and senior quarterback Nate Gray put together a 55-yard drive that ended when Matt Johnson found his way through Canton's lines into the end zone. Brian James' boot lifted Salem to a 7-0, short-lived lead.

Canton came right back after the kickoff thanks to its Johnson, that is QB Rob Johnson, who engineered a 15-play, 67-yard drive that ended with Brian Miller's touchdown and Marcus's successful PAT.

The Johnson-and-James combination broke the tie midway in the second frame. Johnson scored from the one after a Canton turnover gave the Rocks possession deep in the Chiefs' territory. Then, came James' connection.

With 3:07 remaining to strike up the bands, undaunted Canton struck again. This time the

Brooks finishes second in state

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

While state officials are busy picking up the chips and local high school cross country coaches are attempting to sort out fact from factoid surrounding the Saturday's controversial state cross country championships staged at the Michigan International Speedway in Brooklyn, one local team and runner are celebrating their success at the Class A state finals.

Marjorie Brooks culminated an outstanding cross country career at Westland John Glenn by finishing with a silver medal in the individual phase of the finals.

"She (Brooks) ran an excellent race," said Glenn coach Jess Shough. "We are all happy for her."

In the gold rush, Brooks trailed only Jenison's Andrea Rosema who crossed the finish line ahead of the pack. Rosema toured the five kilometer MIS course in an 18:34.

In third place was Jackie Bucholz, a senior, who was clocked in 18:56.90.

Brooks' time, however, was the eighth best for the entire meet, which brought together the best runners in the state of Michigan during the 1996 season.

It was also the first time in the state's long history of high school cross country that the Michigan High School Athletic Association decided to run both genders at the same time at one site.

It was the MHSAA staged a meet using computer chips as a recording device.

The chips and computers

In the middle of the pack is Belleville's Katie Ackron (No. 59) who, with her sister Sarah (photo at right, orange jersey) helped the Tigers reach their goal of placing in the top 15 at the state finals staged on Saturday in Brooklyn at the Michigan International Speedway. were received with mixed emotions by some of the area coaches.

Some athletes and their coaches apparently had problems with the MHSAA decision to use the chips without providing prior knowledge.

A competitor was requested to attach the computer chip to the shoe-lace of their running shoe. As each competitor passed a mile zone (and the finish line), chip was activated and the time entered into the computer bank.

However, some of the runners didn't - or forgot to take the chip out of the informational package.

"Some of the kids didn't put the chips on their shoes as instructed, others lost them during the race, so when they came across the finish line, the computers obviously didn't pick up the times," said Belleville coach Sam Vicchy. "That definitely caused problems. And delays."

Vicchy also pointed out that the MHSAA did not provide schools with information prior to the state finals. He said that all of the problems would have been eliminated if high schools had had an opportunity to conduct a conference meet with the new technology.

"They made an announcement over the P.A. system just before the finals, but I really don't think that that was enough time for coaches to get the message across to their team members," Vicchy said.

Romulus' season of torment ends with a big win

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

In a football season filled with trepidation, taunt and torment, Romulus sophomore coach Mark Woodson and his Eagles managed to survive and surface in triumph at the end.

Romulus mercilessly pounded Garden City 50-6, scoring more touchdowns in their final dance Friday night than they did in their first eight games. The victory also heralded a "turn in the program," according to Woodson.

"I think we came of age in this game," said Woodson. "These kids have had it tough all year long. No one ever blew us out. We were in most of the games we played this year, but a loss is a loss."

Against Garden City, we presented a total package - on offense and defense."

Romulus had the game put away before intermission as sophomore running back Fred Russell ran wild against a stunned and bewildered Garden City defense.

Russell served notice he will be one to contend with in the next two years.

with a stunning kickoff return that covered 84 yards for a touchdown. He didn't stop with that sensational return.

The 5-8, 164-pound soph went on to score three more times, crossing the crease from 22-yards out, also scoring on a 60-yard run and wrapping it up with a 47-yarder. He finished with 226-yards rushing, but he also carded 338 all-purpose yards.

"Some of the colleges had scouts in the stands, looking at him, and he's only a sophomore," noted Woodson. "He is an exceptional talent."

Romulus also got touchdowns from their senior

Ex-Belleville star shines at DePaul

Former Belleville cross country star Anne Gray is playing a leading role in DePaul University's success story this season.

Gray led the DePaul women's cross country team to a third-place overall finish at the Bronco Invitational, hosted by Western University, in Kalamazoo last week.

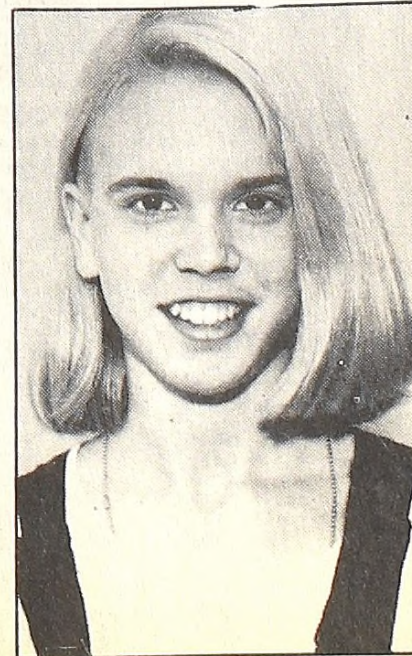

The Blue Demons produced the three top 10 finishes in the 5,000-meter race.

Gray, a senior at the Chicago-based university, crossed the finish line first for her team, but her time of 18:52 earned her a third-place overall finish.

Gray and her running-mates head to the Conference USA championships this week. The championships will be staged in Milwaukee, Wis.

Gray is the former protege of Belleville coach Sam Vicchy and was an all-conference, all-area runner as well as a state-qualifier during three of the four years she competed as a Tiger.

Salem, Stevenson swimmers clash

By LORI GILLESPIE
MCN Staff Writer

It's the Clash of the Titans, as Plymouth-Salem's swimmers prepare to go head-to-head with power house Livonia Stevenson (ranked number one in the state), and other teams in the Western Lakes Athletic Association conference finals.

The Rocks, not ranked in the state, finished the season with a 7-2 record, losing only to Stevenson, and number three ranked Ann Arbor Huron. "We're pretty good," said Salem coach Chuck Olson. "We're looking at the finish, and are hoping to make Stevenson swim faster, and if we can't win, we would like to be second."

The coach said he is hoping to have three or four more girls qualify for the state meet based on their performance during the conference meet. So far, these girls have qualified: Kellyann Williams in the 50 freestyle; Yvonne Lynn in the 200 individual medley, and the backstroke; Kathy Kelly in the 50 freestyle; the 200 medley team consisting of Katie Bonner, Lorissa McKay, Kelly and Lynn; the 200 freestyle team consisting of Carrie Dzialo, Audrey Hala, Kelly, and Williams; and the 400 freestyle team consisting of Hala, Williams, Dzialo, and Lynn.

In summing up the regular season, Olson said he feels it was a "very good season. We had 62 girls on the team, and we made a lot of progress with everybody. We're looking forward to a good conference meet and a good state meet. The girls all worked well together. I'm real pleased with this year's team."

Conference are scheduled at the Salem pool this week. Preliminaries begin this afternoon at 1 p.m., with the diving championship to be decided tomorrow at 2:30 p.m., and the conference finals at 12 noon on Saturday.

quarterback, Jamal Prince, who went in from the two on a keeper. Fullback Brian Tyus scored on a 14-yard, off-tackle slant and Keith Miller wrapped up the scoring also with a two-yard run.

Prince drove in for two two-point conversions, and he also fired a pass to tight end Josiah Joiner for a third conversion.

Tyus plowed past GC's would-be defenders for the other two-pointer.

"I am proud of these kids and the team," said Woodson, a former Robichaud and college star. "We finished with a 2-7 record. These kids could have quit or folded, but they refused to quit. They stayed with it to the end.

"Believe me, our program is stronger because of that - and believe me, I am eagerly waiting for the 1997 season to begin."

of the Zebras' goal line, Wayne gambled on a first-down pass which went from quarterback Lorenzo Guess to his twin brother, via a tipped ball by David Jarrett, that Lavelle raced 99-yards for the touchdown.

Wayne elected to go for the two-point conversion and was denied by the startled Glenn defense.

Wayne enjoyed a 6-0 lead until the early minutes of the second quarter when the 6-6, 200-pound Berent again engineered a second drive, but this time Spearmon polished off the 60-yarder with a five-yard off tackle run that gave the hosts their first six-pointer.

Sure-footed Steve Paling's gave the Rockets a 7-6 lead with his successfully conversion.

But the inspired Wayne took control again, and again it was a Guess-to-Guess pass that put Lavelle into the Rockets' end zone after a 35-yard run which gave the Zebras a 12-7 lead.

Wayne looked like it had its miracle all wrapped up shortly after the beginning of the second half, when Lorenzo Guess picked off a Berent pass and ran it back 40 yards to set up Dwayne Jackson's one-yard touchdown plunge.

The Zebras failed to convert for the third time.

Wayne managed to protect its 18-7 lead until late in the third period when the miracle suddenly turned in a mirage.

The Rockets started their comeback with their comeback kids, Spearmon and Gibson.

Spearmon scored first to cut Wayne's lead to five-points (18-13) and Berent then scored the two-point conversion and made it an 18-15 game.

On their return trip downfield, Wayne was stopped cold when Spearmon stepped in front of a pass intended for Lavelle and hauled it in at midfield. Two plays later Gibson broke away for a 40-yard touchdown run to give the Rockets the lead for good.

The rest is history. That is, history didn't repeat and the Rockets avenged last year's loss to their natural rivals and brought home the "city" trophy.

Jackson's 77 yards, one TD on 12 carries was the best of the Wayne elite, while Lorenzo wrapped up his football career with 213-yards, two touchdowns and he hit on nine of 20 passes against the Rockets.

Spearmon was called upon an unbelievable 33 times against the Wayne defense and he accounted for 209 yards and two touchdowns. Gibson finished with three TDs and 115-yards rushing.

The Glenn defense, which gave up 180-yards in the first half, and was probably read the riot act at halftime, got their act together thanks to stalwarts Nick Neshiewat, a defensive end, and Sean Heard, a linebacker.

ded that one of his runners was involved in a disputed finish. The runner had reached the chute before two others but because the computer failed to pick up the time, the two runners who finished behind the Tiger runner actually were awarded higher finishes.

Vicchy, whose teams have made it to the stage finals three out of the last four years, said using chips is a good idea - and gave the MHSAA an "A-plus" for effort, "but it was a terrible time to experiment."

Belleville finished 14th overall as a team. The Tigers had set their sights on finishing among the top 15 and, according to Vicchy, "we accomplished what we set out to do."

Belleville counted the scores of: Beth Hiser, a senior who finished 64th, with a personal best time of 20:03; Lisa Jones, who was 77th (20:16); Tammy Pietrowski, 79th (20:17); Katie Ackron, 98th (20:35); Sarah Ackron, 110th (20:43).

Other Tigers who finished the meet included: Michelle King, 128th (21:07) and Shantell Riley, 130th (21:09).

Glenn's only other qualifier, Joe Wojtowicz, was 16th after the first two miles, however, the senior Rocket faded in the stretch and had to be satisfied with an 80th finish.

Shough said he felt the computer-chip system was a good one.

"In fact, some of the athletes wanted to keep the chip after the race and they were informed they could, but for the price tag of $20."

The veteran coach said he felt the site (MIS) posed a challenge for coaches and their team members.

"From a coaching standpoint, it was very difficult because you were very restricted. After the runners left the (MIS) field, they disappeared into a wooded area and you couldn't follow them except with binoculars. The only contact with them was when they returned to the stadium."

"The coach-athlete element was taken away, and that isn't how it should be," Shough added. "We are going to meet with the state sometime next week, and I am confident that this will come up."

Sterling Heights Stevenson captured the Class A state championship in the women's division, beating out top-ranked Livonia Stevenson, the reigning Western Lakes Conference champs, for the coveted prize. Sterling Heights compiled 104 points as compared to Livonia's 126. Novi finished third with 182.

In the men's division, Milford edged Traverse City by five points (94-99) to come away with top honors. Ann Arbor Huron finished a distance third with 225 points.

Canton quarterback found a weak link in the Salem air defenses and launched missiles into the secondary. Johnson eventually threw a strike to tight end Rob Proctor that covered 26 yards. Marcus' point-after tied the game (14-all) for the second time.

But Johnson jolted the encircling Chiefs with a last minute of the half run that Canton never expected or appeared to recover from. With 1:20 remaining, Canton called for an "time out" to regroup, but after the game resumed, Johnson took a second and 12 situation and turned it into a 69-yard touchdown run - his third TD of the half.

Through no fault of his, James wasn't given the chance to use his toe as a snap from center turned up as a fumble.

Salem's defense, spearheaded by Tim Kocoloski, Eric Peterson and Mike Middel co-captain James Chapman turned the slugfest to a Salem fest after the half. Canton got the kickoff at the 20 - three plays later they were doing a balancing act on their goal line as Kocoloski got a sack; Peterson was credited with an unassisted tackle and Mike Middel blocked a punt which Chapman covered for the two-point safety.

With the score 22-14, Canton's hopes of an upset was fading fast.

In the fourth quarter, Gray scored on a three-yard plunge and, after the blitzing Peterson recovered a Canton turnover at the Chiefs' three, it was all but over as Johnson scored his fourth and final TD of his prep career.

Canton came back with its final score of the 1996 campaign. Johnson and K. C. McCuskey combined on a 32-yard strike that accounted for the final score.

Moshimer commended the outstanding efforts on defense by Chapman, Tony Bernhardt, Teono Wilson and Jeff McKian.

Moshimer went on to say the 1996 Salem team will be remembered "as a team that played up to its capabilities. This is a team any coach would have been proud to coach."
